

Position Description: Program Support Volunteer

Position Summary

Volunteers will contribute to Red Dust's mission by being part of the program team that goes into remote Indigenous communities to deliver health and wellbeing programs in schools and the wider community. This role involves working in a team, supporting all aspects of program delivery and importantly maintaining an open mind and a willingness to observe, listen and learn. It will be an experience you will never forget.

Key Responsibilities

- Being part of a team of volunteers that delivers health and wellbeing programs in remote Indigenous communities in Australia.
- Participating and where directed lead group activities in school, after school and in community.
- Deliver and implement activities in your specified area of experience or expertise.
- Execute all assigned tasks in a professional and efficient manner
- Support the team and team leader in all areas of the program.
- Respect the community, participants and their culture.

Key Duties

- Complete tasks assigned by the Team Leader including:
 - supporting classroom facilitation of Red Dust health lessons
 - supporting in-class learning
 - support afterschool and on country visits
 - trip preparation
 - driving vehicles
 - preparing meals
 - cleaning
 - program data collection.
- Complete any training and briefing where required.

Key Relationships

- Program Team Leader
- Red Dust Program Coordinators
- Program participants

What do you bring

- A desire to make a difference in the lives of Indigenous Australians, particularly in the most remote communities.
- An enthusiastic nature, keen to be involved and willing to do what it takes to deliver outcomes.
- A strong team ethic with an ability to work with all types of individuals.
- An openness to learn and listen.

- Embrace challenges and be ready for new experiences.
- Comfortable speaking/presenting in groups.
- Honesty and Integrity aligning with our core values of Real, Ready & Respectful.

Desired Qualifications

- Experience or qualification in a specialised field including but not limited to - teaching, sport, art, music, health or medical related, science, youth work, Indigenous studies.
- Current first aid certificate.

Procedure

- Applying for a WWCNT Ochre Card
- Submitting your online Volunteer Application
- Completing an onboarding call or meeting with the Program Manager
- Attending various program briefing sessions via zoom or in person